

RIELLY

My interest in the paranormal started at a very young age, and I've always wanted to know more. I went on my first investigation when I was a senior in high school, and since then I've felt a connection with the other side. In the two years I've been an investigator, I've traveled all over in hopes of gathering evidence and communicating with the unknown. Although I enter each investigation with a healthy dose of skepticism, I have encountered things that cannot be explained, which only fuels my passion for the field. I am currently a creative writing student at Oakland University, and when I'm not on a ghost hunt, you can find me reading a good book or at a concert.
