

MELISSA

When I started Investigating, I didn't believe in the existence of the Paranormal. I attended an investigation at Eloise Asylum with a friend and witnessed activity I could not explain. We purchased our own equipment and started investigating on our own until we were fortunate enough to find DRCP, a team of like-minded individuals.

When I'm not investigating, I enjoy time with my children/grandchildren, writing short stories, and bike riding.