

MANDI

I have been interested in the paranormal since I was a child. Some of my fondest childhood memories are listening to ghost stories and reading paranormal books. I went on my first paranormal investigation in 2013 and never stopped going. I consider myself open minded but look at all scenarios objectively. I am excited to be on a team with people that share the same interests as me.